Nowhere in Mid-Wilshire is more happening than the La Brea corridor. At Kayne Griffin Corcoran, don't miss Tomoharu Murakami, on view until Jan. 6. Murakami's intense dedication to his practice takes on a deep spiritual dimension. Founding partner Maggie Kayne says, "We strongly believe that he's one of the most underappreciated abstractionists to emerge in the postwar era—on any continent—and we look forward to reintroducing the West Coast to the depth and uniqueness of his practice!" 1201 S.
