Datebook: Plays on gender and sport, a pioneering Romanian conceptualist, new abstraction

Liza Ryan, "Antarctica," at Kayne Griffin Corcoran. Ryan has explored Antarctica on foot and by kayak. And in this new series of works, she attempts to convey the continent's subtleties and its vastness in photographs onto which she traces elements of the landscape with charcoal, ink and graphite — pictures that are taken as much as they are drawn. *Through March 17. 1201 S.
